Note To All Prospective Members

Aikido is a Martial Art. Members are warned that there is always a possibility of personal injury, no matter how controlled the class. It is the member's responsibility to ensure that their licence is current prior to any training as failure to hold a current licence could jeopardise any insurance claims. All members are licensed through the British Aikido Board.

Data Protection

The personal data you provide may be held by your Club and the Institute of Aikido (IoA). The basis on which your Association, your Club and the British Aikido Board (BAB) the Governing Body of Aikido in the UK processes your personal data is their legitimate interest in the following: administration purposes in managing a sports club/association, maintaining accurate membership records, safeguarding of members, obtaining insurance through BAB membership, informing members of news and information about the BAB and Aikido in general.

The BAB and The Monitoring Group (TMG) are the only third parties with whom we share any of your personal data. We will provide the BAB with your personal details when first applying for, or renewing, your BAB membership, and other details in instances where it is necessary for the BAB's functioning as a national governing body and to TMG when necessary for CRB checks.

You have the right to request a copy of your personal data and other rights such as erasure or correction of your personal data, as well as the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioners Office.

For further details see the Data Protection Policy and Privacy Notice which is available on our website. The policies also summarise the approach to retention of personal data.

The IoA has an officer whom you can contact if you have any enquiries: DPO@instituteofaikido.uk
